

Self-Assessment of Back Channel Contributions

Activity: _____

Date: _____

	4	3	2	1
Responses to Questions/comments made by the teacher	I responded to questions from the teacher were insightful and even included links in my posts to support what I was saying.	I responded to most of the questions made by the teacher and made relevant comments.	I responded to only a few comments and my contributions were partial and general.	My responses were minimal and trivial and did not contribute to the discussions at all.
Did you initiate a topic or discussion on a topic?	I started topics that were insightful and started a meaningful discussion.	I started topics/discussions that were appropriate and relevant.	The topics/discussions I started were simplistic.	The topics/discussions that I started were unfocused or absent.
Responses to topics posed by others in the class	I responded to questions from other students in an insightful and purposeful manner. I even included links in my posts to support what I was saying.	I responded to topics from others in a relevant and thoughtful way.	I responded to topics from others in a general and simplistic manner.	I did not respond to other topics from students, or the responses I gave were incomplete or irrelevant.
Respect for my classmates and online community	A conversation with a group of adults that you wouldn't hesitate to have your parents hear.	A discussion with your teacher and classmates.	A discussion between students or group working on a project.	A discussion among a group of friends.

